

CULTURAL COMPETENCY

for consultants and nonprofit organizations

Please join CORE for a morning of networking and learning on Wednesday, October 19

at the home of Rebecca Krantz
2116 Jefferson St, Madison

8:30am	tea, coffee, treats
9-11am	interactive learning
11:30am	doors close

Why participate?

- You value cross-cultural understanding.
- You are ready to develop practical skills for working and communicating effectively with people from diverse backgrounds.
- You aspire to support clients in thinking about cultural competency.
- You are willing to try something new.
- You appreciate connecting with and learning from peers.

Space is limited.

RSVP to Jessica Diaz-Hurtado at corestaff123@gmail.com
by noon on Monday, October 17

OUR LEARNING LEADER

Nasra Wehelie is President of Dedicated Consultants LLC and a member of the CORE Steering Committee. Her organization provides cross-cultural competency training, strategic planning and leadership development.

As leader of her organization, Nasra helps clients harness the power of cultural competency to improve communication, drive efficiency into the business process and optimize profitability. Through the development of strategic initiatives, partnerships, and programs that promote an inclusive workforce, her organization is at the forefront of global efforts to address critical and emerging issues in the cross-cultural communications.

Nasra holds a BA in International Relations from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and an MBA from Cardinal Stritch University-Madison.

